

Uplands Junior School Sports Premium Grant 2021/2022

Total amount of PE and Sports Premium Received: £19,800

Key achievements to date until July 2020:

- Health and well-being week was held at the end of spring term, in line with the children returning from another lockdown.
- Platinum Sports Games Mark achieved in 2019 through to 2022 (retained our award due to Covid-19).
- Every class received multiple Active Well-being Clubs through spring and summer term, after lockdown, ran by Soccer 2000 in their bubbles.
- PE equipment re-stocked
- Huff'n'Puff (playground play equipment) re-stocked and brand new equipment ordered.
- Some extra-curricular clubs have started in the Summer Term.
- 'Bush Tribe' club has been introduced linking with outdoor learning.
- Introduction of 'Trick Box' – mental health strategies for the children.
- Art of Brilliance focus week took place when children returned after lockdown in the spring. Principles were shared across all year groups.
- The new garden space, which will be used as a Mental Health space, has begun work.

Areas for further improvement and baseline evidence of need:

- Extra-curricular clubs to be put back onto the timetable according to DFE/LA guidance and covid-19 restrictions.
- Top-up swimming lessons for those children who missed their sessions last academic year and those in year 6 who need intervention to reach targets.
- Continue to provide CPD opportunities for staff.
- To further encourage less active and PP children to take part in extracurricular activities.
- To introduce Marathon Kids throughout the whole school (AW to implement)
- Develop 'Trick Box' further, embedding into school and considering a 'Trick Bob Team' with peer mentors.
- Art of Brilliance full website subscription to help with character development.
- Creative an outdoor space for positive mental health – garden.
- 'Bounce Together' – evaluate this resource for tracking mental health.
