Thank you

Our Christmas fair was a huge success raising just over £1600 with an additional £400 on the raffle. Thank you so much for all donations and support for this event. We are within touching distance of our target to be able to place an order for a new minibus!

Thank you

School logo

Some time ago we revised our school logo (see below). There are a few minor changes from the original plus the addition of our "Respect For All" motto. Lads and Lasses uniform supplies will now begin to incorporate this logo on to our uniform items. There is no need to make any new purchases but the change will happen gradually over time as and when you need to buy new items.

In addition Lads and Lasses will be offering Year 6 Leavers' hoodies and T-Shirts from this year for parents to purchase if they wish. Details will be sent out to all Year 6 parents shortly.

Behaviour at Uplands

Our school has a Behaviour policy which is reviewed annually and approved by the Governing Board. We seek to reinforce and reward positive behaviour but at times sanctions are required and children have to take some responsibility for their actions. At Uplands we operate a "stage" system-details of this can be found in our policy which is on our website. Staff always fully investigate incidents and make informed decisions if a stage is required depending on the severity of the incident and the context.

I (Mrs Webster-Smith) monitor all behaviour stages on a weekly basis and act accordingly. Parents are informed if their child receives a Stage 5 or if there are repeated incidents at lower stage levels. We can never discuss the sanctions given to a child other than your own. We ask that parents support our professional judgement in implementing our Behaviour policy.

Thank you.

The role of the Education Welfare Officer in our school:

The Education Welfare Officer is employed to provide support and advice to schools and families of children who have a low attendance percentage. This support is vital to enable families to support their child with getting to school on time and to attend every day where possible. The Education Welfare Officer visits our school every three weeks to provide information and feedback regarding the attendance of our pupils. A short meeting takes place to discuss the overall attendance of our school and where if possible improvements can be made. As part of the Educational Welfare Officers duty of care to our pupils on a regular basis a 'Late Gate' will be carried out to explain to parents the importance of getting their child to school on time. We as a school have a duty of care to our pupils and parents to offer support and guidance with any attendance concerns. If you have any questions regarding the above please feel free to contact school and an appointment can be made with our Welfare Officer. We would also kindly ask parents to telephone school every day if your child is absent from school this is the preferred method of communication rather than sending an email. Thank you for your continued support.

School Meals

If your child would like to change their meal pattern, please could this be done half termly only. Our catering company Chartwells provide the amount of meals that are allocated to each child's meal pattern daily. Unfortunately due to number of parents not advising school in advance if their child's arrangements have changed this has put pressure on our kitchen staff.

Thank you.
